

Since 1982 the James Joyce Centre has promoted an appreciation and understanding of the life and works of the great Irish author James Joyce. Recently refurbished, the Centre plans to continue its record of providing a memorable experience to the casual visitor, student and scholar alike.

The Friends Programme of the James Joyce Centre offers enthusiasts an opportunity to play a special role. Each Programme level offers the Friends unique benefits and rewards. This year the Friends Programme features member only invitations to:

- Lunchtime talks with renowned Joyce experts
- Viewings and discussion of material from some of the world's finest private Joyce collections
- Exclusive private visits to key Joyce sites

In addition, Friends of the Centre will benefit from:

- Preferential ticketing for the Centre's Bloomsday events
- Free admission to the Centre
- 10% discount in the Centre's bookshop
- Concession rate the Centre's lecture series and other events

Join the Joyce Centre family of Friends and become a part of the Centre's future!
